

EVERYONE IS A STORY

Our passion at DeForest Press is to help writers tell their stories. We provide the guidance, help and encouragement you need to turn your manuscript into a professional, marketable book.

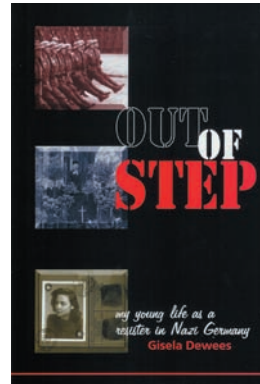

We take your writing as seriously as you do. We begin by listening to your concerns and needs. Whether you've just started to put ideas together or simply need help polishing up your manuscript, we can help streamline the publishing process. We'll help take care of the details and headaches for you so you can focus on your writing.

At DeForest Press, we work with you on your journey to becoming a published writer. We realize different authors have different needs. Some authors want to be involved in every aspect of publishing, others want to stay focused on their writing. After looking at your manuscript and discussing your goals, we'll recommend and provide the services you choose. You pay only for the services you need.

EVERY ONE DESERVING TO BE TOLD

We believe your story is worth telling. The reality, however, is that most of the manuscripts people write never get published. Out of the estimated two million book-length manuscripts circulating each year to publishers, roughly 100,000, or 5%, will be published. Of these 5%, only about 30% sell enough copies to make money. Therefore, less than 2% of the manuscripts sent to publishers yearly will actually be published and make a profit. If you do make money, typical royalties run from 7-10%. At DeForest Press, we'll help you beat the odds by publishing the book you want at an affordable price, while you keep control of your book and keep 100% of the profits.

Our services include:

- Editing and proofreading
- Copyright, ISBN, bar codes, permissions
- Marketing & pricing recommendations
- Writing, rewriting and ghostwriting
- Disk and manuscript preparation
- Typesetting & layout
- Cover design
- Printing and binding
- Photo/illustration scanning & touch-up
- Consulting

Because we work with the latest technology in terms of page layout, printing and binding, publishing with DeForest Press is surprisingly affordable. We'll help you decide what is the most cost-effective way to publish your book before you pay a penny. One thousand copies of a professional-looking book of 150 pages with a four-color cover costs about the same price as a nice vacation.

TESTIMONIALS

"We would like to express our appreciation to our publisher, Richard Erickson, for his vision and for his willingness to put the whole project together under time constraints. Also thank you to our editor, Shane Groth, for his expert advice."

Marcia Moen, Reflections of Courage on D-Day

"I could never have published my book without the help of DeForest Press. They provided the encouragement, guidance and help I needed to make my first book a success. It was a dream come true."

Sally Dare, Anna: Letters from the Attic

"Thanks to two good-looking and intelligent visionaries, Dick Erickson and Shane Groth, my publisher and editor at DeForest Press. Dick and Shane, your mission to assist authors in following their dreams is a noble one, and you are very good at it!"

Ellen Schettling Whitehead, Shell Song

"Thank you, Dick and Shane. You are great friends and just the people I needed."

Eddie Lesnick, Gospel Song
